

A Note Of Clarification

Because a few have brought comment concerning the way we choose to date our published blogs, we offer the following explanation ...

We write blogs well before we post them on this ARCHIVED blog site. We send the articles – a pre-Internet posting action – to our friends and supporters who have asked to receive our snail-mail (hard copy) letters [letters which do NOT go out on the Internet]. In fact, sometimes these very friends and supporters help us with final edits on what we later decide to post on the Internet. Thank You, gracious Lord Jesus, for our ministry team! We take the approach above for multiple God-honoring reasons.

So, IF you see an article which has, for example, a 2023 copyright date on it, YET (you) notice we post the same article as a 2024 submission on our blog pages, it's because of the dynamic above. The articles (not cover letters) have been written (often) well BEFORE we post them as archived blogs.

If you would like to get our initial releases on some of our materials – only some of which are eventually posted on this TruthFoundations.org blog site – please ask to get on our Endurance Ministries' mailing list. We send these hard-copy, snail-mail letters (you would need to give us your snail-mail mailing address if you wish to receive them) out about 10 times, annually. To help us with annual costs, please submit a $100 gift toward our direct ministry efforts when asking to get on this off-line service. Please make your check out to “Endurance Ministries.” P.O. Box 92098 ; Portland, OR 97292. Those who donate will receive our ministry box, especially intended for the pastor(s) of the home church which new subscribers attend.
