

One Dynamic Of Contemporary Trends: They're Short Lived

Fads are, most often, temporary and short lived. In light of this truism ...

Though things currently appear to be moving against certain expressions of wickedness, make no mistake about it: Darkness is aggressively working toward the one world system which the antichrist ( the AX ) will one day clearly take control over. This is NOT a time for letting down our guard.

Satan knows his time is short. He is seeking to set up a world which rejects the one True יהוה God.

One issue tied to this concern of how we should live in a dark, deceptive culture is this:

God does not call us to crash. We don't have to go down with the ships (of others' crises).

In fact, God calls us 1. to discern our day through "watching" and, 2. to reject compromise.

He calls us to endure to the end. He rewards those who "overcome." Revelation chapters 2 & 3

Yes, we can reach out to others who are hurting but do recall: While Jesus (with dirty feet) did indeed reach out to tax collectors and sinners, He never compromised. He loved the woman caught in adultery – even protected her from the evil religious leaders – BUT He went on to tell her: Go and sin no more. He didn't crash in His purity so that He could indeed be the spotless Lamb of God Who was, in the Father's eyes, able to bring God's holy sacrifice for sins.

For example, it's a good time to be practicing "NO"-saying today given all the appeals to stray from the faith. As believers, for example, I hope we all retain and live out the FACT that the Word of God makes it clear that taking the mark of the beast – even when it isn't called that by deceived culture – is NOT something God wants us to do. In other words, we all acknowledge the Truth that God speaks against taking the mark. The problem is, though, this: There are many wolves in sheep's clothing who say God will forgive His people who take the mark. DON'T believe their false-hope dogmatic claim. Instead, apply wisdom and consider the SAFE path in light of the full Counsel of God's Word. Two articles which address this matter can be viewed by clicking the two links immediately below:

And what if YOU are NOT a serious, committed new-born follower of Jesus Christ?

Don't experience the crash of all crashes by failing to accept, by faith, the gift of eternal life in Christ alone! Please look over the presentations of the Gospel by clicking the link below:
