

Censorship Comes In Mild Forms Too

We've brought FOREWARNING about this very thing!

In early July of this year, Truth Social changed the configuration on our Truth Social page.* Since we opened the account over a year ago, anyone could view our short posts on our page. Now, only those who have an account with Truth Social can see our posts (once they've logged in). It's similar to Facebook's approach.* www.TruthSocial.com/@6TFTruthMattersTF6 [NB: See update below.]

Well, what can we say but “OKAY, I don't like the new restriction – what equals to increased soft censorship – but I have no direct recourse concerning this matter, at least I'm not aware of any.” So how should we respond to this new development? “Let's continue playing Divine Chess” indeed!

In light of the fact that some will not open a Truth Social account – and thus will not have access to our page – we are offering what we're calling “PLAN B.” We understand and honor the convictions of some who don't want to open a Truth Social account, yet given our materials are helpful and sought after, we want to do what we can to allow all to see our posts. So here's our PLAN B ...

PLAN B

Every other month – at the minimum – we will post a BLOG quoting our Truth Social entries. This way, folks who want to view our appeals can do so even though they do not have a Truth Social account. They just won't be able to read our current posts until we publish them through our BLOG format. Our BLOG publishing usually takes place by the first of each month.

Please be patient with us as we make this adjustment.

[ Late July Update : Truth Social (TS) has once again changed its viewing parameters. As of late July, it has reversed the above change (back to non TS members having basic access to our page) but has greatly increased unwanted AD presence. ]
