| 2025 Thankful Lives   Grateful Hearts | He helps us to be thankful, even today! |

This year we're combining the above appeals with one other Bible theme which the Church has most treasured over the millennia. Faithfulness matters!

The FAITHFULNESS of God ...

|             |                                                            |
|-------------|------------------------------------------------------------|
| He is       |                                                            |
| Faithful to | His glorious characterHis written WordHis Children |

God is trustworthy concerning end time Counsel because He is Truth & love & because He knows the future. In His crucial revelation to those who are willing to listen, we find, among other things, this clear command:

The FAITHFULNESS of man ...

|                |                       |
|----------------|-----------------------|
| יהוה God       |                       |
| invites us to  |                       |
| be Faithful to | Him through obedience |

He calls us to be faithful to Him in and through the end of days. But how can we faithfully ENDURE given what's ahead?

God knows our limitations. As a result, He has provided us the means to experience victory in living out our new lives in Jesus Christ – Gal. 3:1-4.
