

God's Goodness To Us – What Mercy, What Grace!

2024 © Copyright by Jon Swanson ; Please share this good free stuff article with others.

Goodness is yet another quality of the Godhead we so appreciate due especially to our being the recipients of His goodness. While true, it's important to value our Creator's goodness apart from what we receive therein. God's innate goodness includes so many treasures.

It really is amazing how far God goes in extending His mercy and grace to us! While His goodness is most precious indeed, the time has come where we really should confess other aspects of the character of God are freshly manifesting. God is also holy. He is patient but there comes a time when God's actions indicate, concerning some things, He's had enough. Yes: ENOUGH IS ENOUGH. His judgment and wrath are given and will be given in the years ahead. Even in this the love of God is demonstrated because He mercifully [still!] allows us to repent. Romans 2:4 is amazing. Indeed, even here, God is so good that He hopes repentance will be one fruit of His discipline of man. IF real confession and turning away from sin to righteousness is offered by members of humanity, God relents as He chooses.

You most likely know the Goodness of God song that includes these lyrics:

All my life You have been faithful.
All my life You have been so, so good.
With every breath that I am able,
Oh, I will sing of the goodness of God.

Chorus lyrics by Ben Fielding, Ed Cash, Jason Ingram, Jenn Johnson and Brian Johnson

Please ponder (meditate on) God's goodness, mercy and grace.

Lord, what can we say but “Thank You dear Most High God!
Indeed, we sing of Your goodness dear God!
In Your dear Son, Jesus Christ's glorious name
we pray, amen”

In His goodness to us, God has given us precious Counsel as to navigating today's most troubled end-time waters. For example:
Do further meditate on | ponder Romans 2:4!

For extended insights of mercy and grace during the tribulation expressions of these end of days, please visit www.EnduranceMinistries.online | www.FinalTrumpet.online.

For our contemporary blog posts, go to www.TruthFoundations.org.