

I confess I am actually angered by the deceptions of this false teacher.

“Lord, I want to give a soft answer which turns away wrath BUT I also want to state my concern in such a way which follows Your example in Matthew 23 - a “Woe to you ...” (anger at false teachers) kind of response.

So, Lord, how should I go about expressing my warning on this matter?”

I’ll simply allow the readers to choose which of the two responses (below) they’d like to read.

For an emotion-laced,
in your face response,

Click Here.

For a soft-answer,
hey dear Brother response,

Click Here.