

On Financials ...

(Handout 101)

The days when Daniel 7:21, 25, Daniel 11:33 and Revelation 13:7 especially begin to manifest themselves are right around the corner.

Questions: Are you prepared such that this day will hit you with as little consequence* as possible? There are things we can do to limit this era's effect upon our lives where, initially, we will not be as plundered by the worldly system as we could be. I say "initially" given the days are coming when, through the mark of the beast, the effects of that yet-future program will hit every non-mark taker. Capiche? / Capeesh?

During the process of further changing the global monetary system, rules will be put in place that will make accessibility to certain personal funds practically impossible, especially if folks don't submit to the new planetary rules. Trillions of monetary units (dollars, rubles, yuans, pesos, etc.) will be lost through the process of transition. The ruling elite will indeed steal from the global groups they intend to one day plunder – especially the יהוה God-fearing communities (including both Jewish & Christian communities).

There are many diverse ways to respond to this upcoming plundering. We encourage the reader to prayerfully consider how God would have you respond. Ask the Lord of lords to make known the direction He'd have you take. His Holy Spirit will lead if we sincerely seek His leading.

Through it all, may we be God's beacons of light during this dark blemish on human history. Significantly: May the light and love of Jesus Christ be seen in and through His New Covenant people.

* We're addressing only financial aspects of the war against the saints in this article.
